

1. Latino Center of the Midlands
4821 S 24th St

The Latino Center of the Midlands was organized in 1917 to address concerns about the education of Chicano youth. They work to develop youth and young adults by promoting comprehensive engagement, higher education, employment and careers to the Chicano community.

2. El Museo Latino
4701 S 25th St

El Museo Latino exhibits a large range of Central and South American cultures. Guatemalan cultures and traditions will often end up displayed and taught to the public.

3. Comunidad Maya Pixan Ixim
4913 S 25th St

This organization focuses on the health and well-being of Mayan immigrants in Omaha. It provides a place where Mayan immigrants can continue learning and performing their cultural practices.

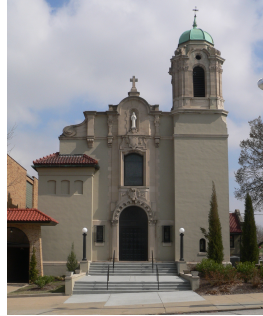

4. South Omaha Mural Project
4808 S 26th St.

This organization creates murals that represent different cultures in the Omaha community.

5. Mayan Community Mural
2401 N St

This mural was made to show the past, present, future of the Maya. Each loop of the mural tells a story. Throughout these stories they share the emotions of sorrow, strength, and hope of the Maya.

6. Saint Frances Cabrini Ixim
1248 S 10th St

St Frances Cabrini, a Catholic church in the Archdiocese of Omaha, that co-sponsors (in partnership with Diocese of Huehuetenango, Guatemala) a ministry called Ixim: Spirit of Solidarity that is dedicated in aiding Guatemalan communities thriving in Huehuetenango. Their main goal is to support families in Guatemala by providing health care, clean water and a proper education.

7. St. Joseph
1723 S 17th St

Saint Joseph serves the Spanish speaking community with services in Spanish. It is an important place for the Catholic refugees who come to Omaha.

8. St. Francis of Assisi
4513 S 32nd St

Saint Francis of Assisi hosts a large number of Guatemalan parishioners, and performs Mass in Spanish at 11:30 on Sundays.

9. Chiltepes
2308 N St

Chiltepes is a restaurant serving authentic Guatemalan foods; such as burritos, empanadas, pupusas, tamales of rice and corn tortillas and more. They cater to Guatemalans searching for a taste of home, with their menu in Spanish.

10. Maya Market
2910 K St C

A market and bakery with products from Mexico and Central America.

11. La Economica
5520 S 36th St

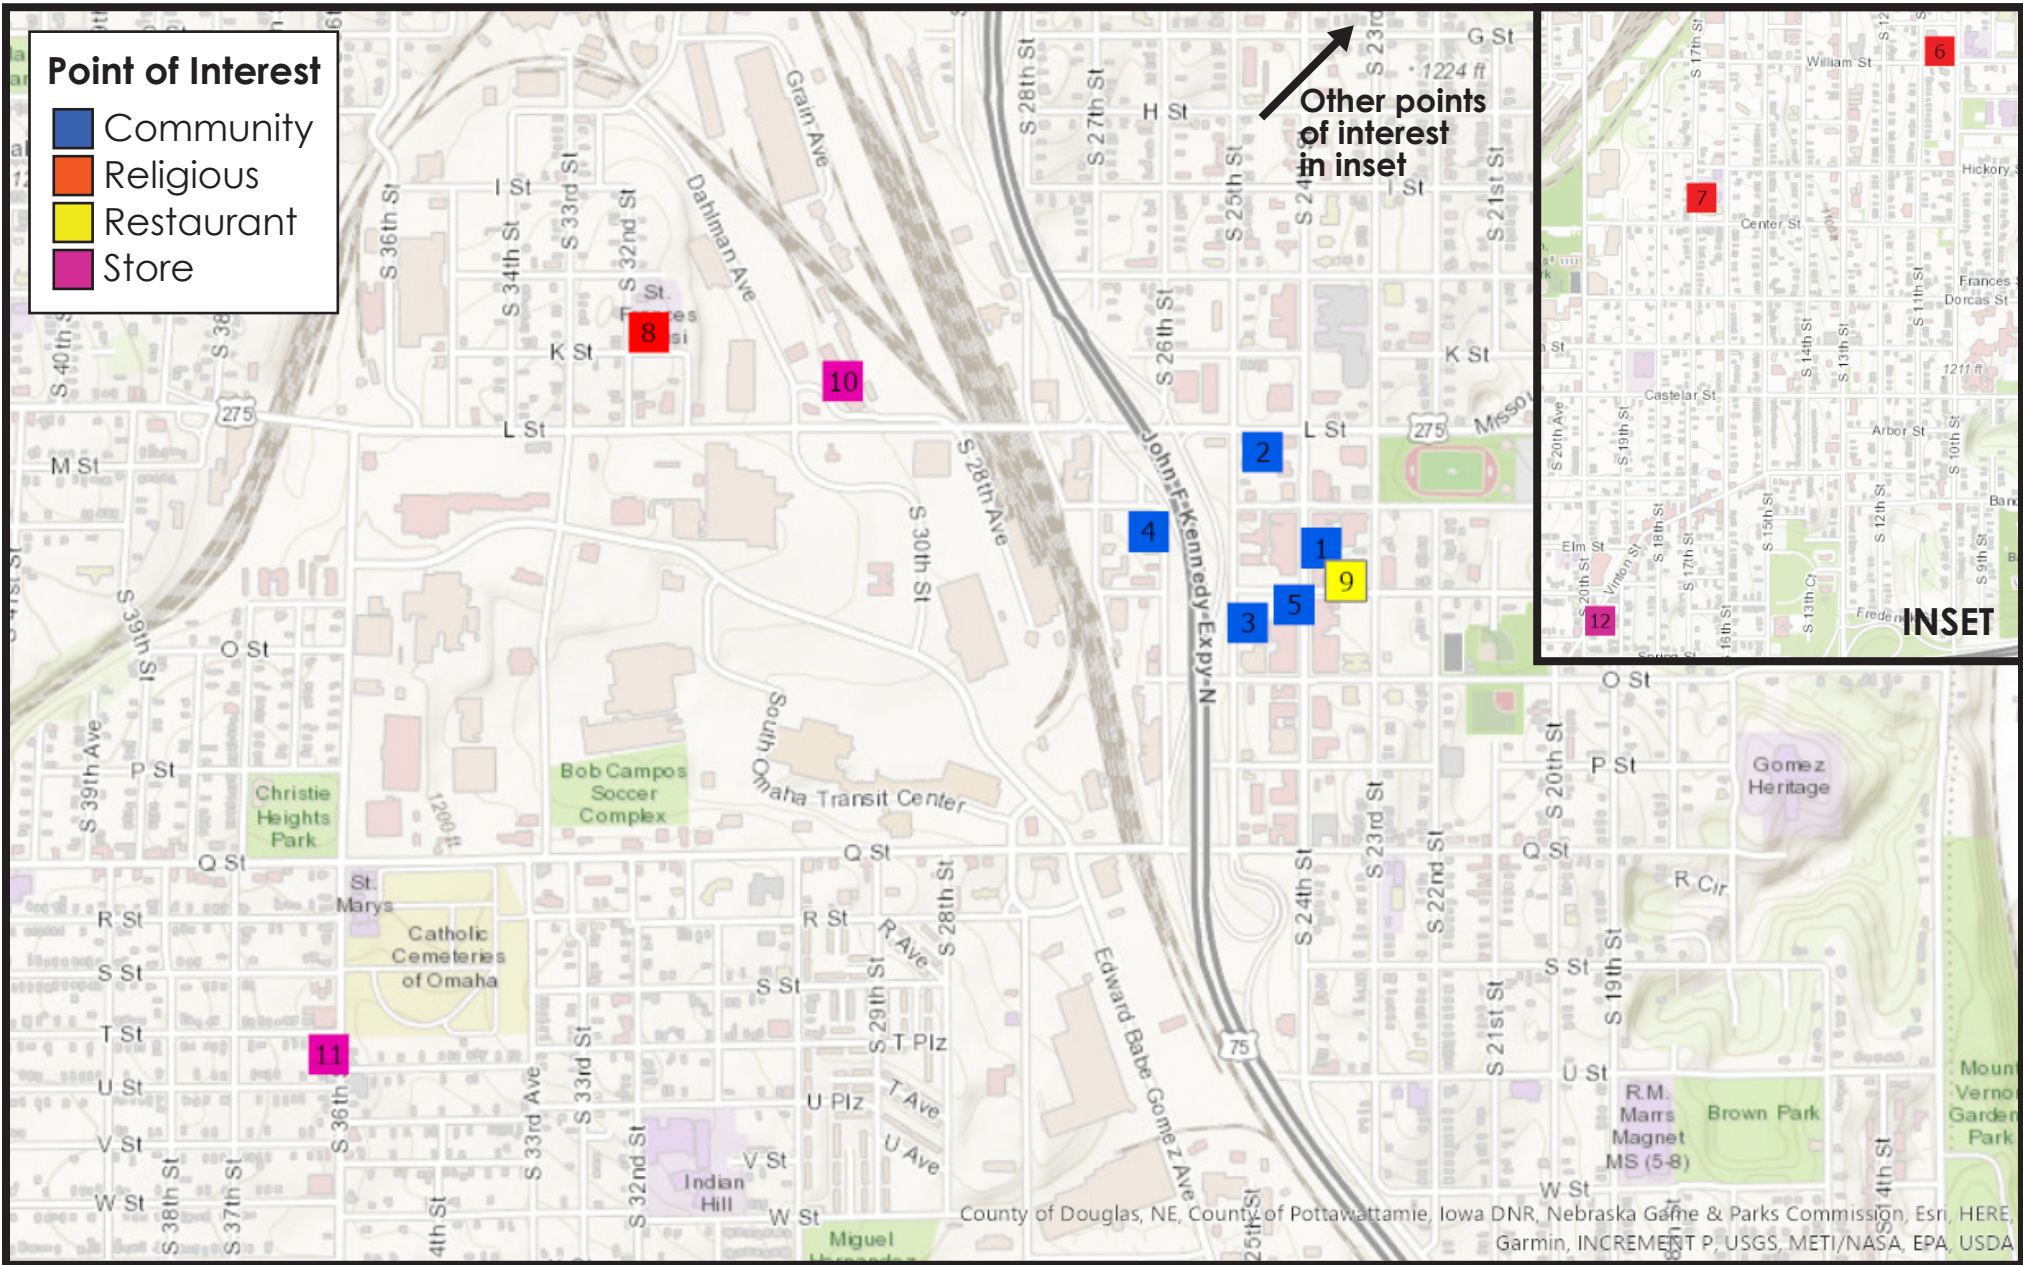

A market with products from Mexico and Central America.

12. El Quetzal Market
1941 Vinton St

A Mayan grocery store that includes Guatemalan products.

WELCOME TO OMAHA - GUATEMALAN IMMIGRANTS

Welcome to Omaha! This map shows a few points of interest for our Guatemalan community here in Omaha. For more information, please look on the back for more information about each point.