

1. Karen Society of NE
816 N 44th St

The goal of the Karen Society of NE is to help Karen refugees and immigrants build a successful life in Omaha by helping them find jobs and education. The Karen Society of Nebraska assists with setting appointments, finding employment, reading mail, and filling out application forms for the Karen community.

2. Karen Seventh-Day Adventist Church
3528 Burt St

The Seventh-Day Adventists Church is a Christian community that holds services for Bible study, worship, and prayer. They have approximately 19 million members around the world and 1 million members in North America.

3. Talanya Buddha Vihara
9861 N 60th St

This Karen Buddhist Temple is part of the Karen Buddhist Society of Omaha. Outside of the temple there is a Buddha statue with a cement area in front of it. People will take off their shoes and lay a prayer rug on the cement to pray in front of Buddha.

4. Omaha Kanyaw Baptist Church
4730 N 60th Ave

The Omaha Kanyaw Baptist Church has 500 members and 3 pastors. Their most attended service is their Sunday noon service, when women and youth join together to worship. The church focuses on teaching the Bible as well as the Karen language. The pastors wear traditional Karen shirts for every service as well as celebrating the Karen New Year at the church every year to uphold Karen traditions.

5. Salween Thai
14450 Eagle Run Dr

Founded by the Yoshu Win family. A traditional Thai restaurant in Omaha with 5 locations. Their first restaurant opened in 2012 at 1102 NW Radial Hwy.

6. Salween Thai
1102 NW Radial Hwy

Founded by the Yoshu Win family. A traditional Thai restaurant in Omaha with 5 locations. Their first restaurant opened in 2012 at 1102 NW Radial Hwy.

7. Salween Thai
6533 Ames Ave

Founded by the Yoshu Win family. A traditional Thai restaurant in Omaha with 5 locations. Their first restaurant opened in 2012 at 1102 NW Radial Hwy.

8. Salween Thai
7425 Pacific St

Founded by the Yoshu Win family. A traditional Thai restaurant in Omaha with 5 locations. Their first restaurant opened in 2012 at 1102 NW Radial Hwy.

9. Salween Thai
9939 Redick Cir

Founded by the Yoshu Win family. A traditional Thai restaurant in Omaha with 5 locations. Their first restaurant opened in 2012 at 1102 NW Radial Hwy.

10. Hartman Elementary
5530 N 66th St

Opened for the 1964-65 school year, the school was named in honor of Richard Floyd Hartman. Many Karen children go to Hartman.

11. Asian Family Market
5934 Ames Ave

A grocery store commonly frequented by members of the Karen community.

12. Asian Family Market
1510 NW Radial Hwy

A grocery store commonly frequented by members of the Karen community.

13. Asian Market
321 N 76th St

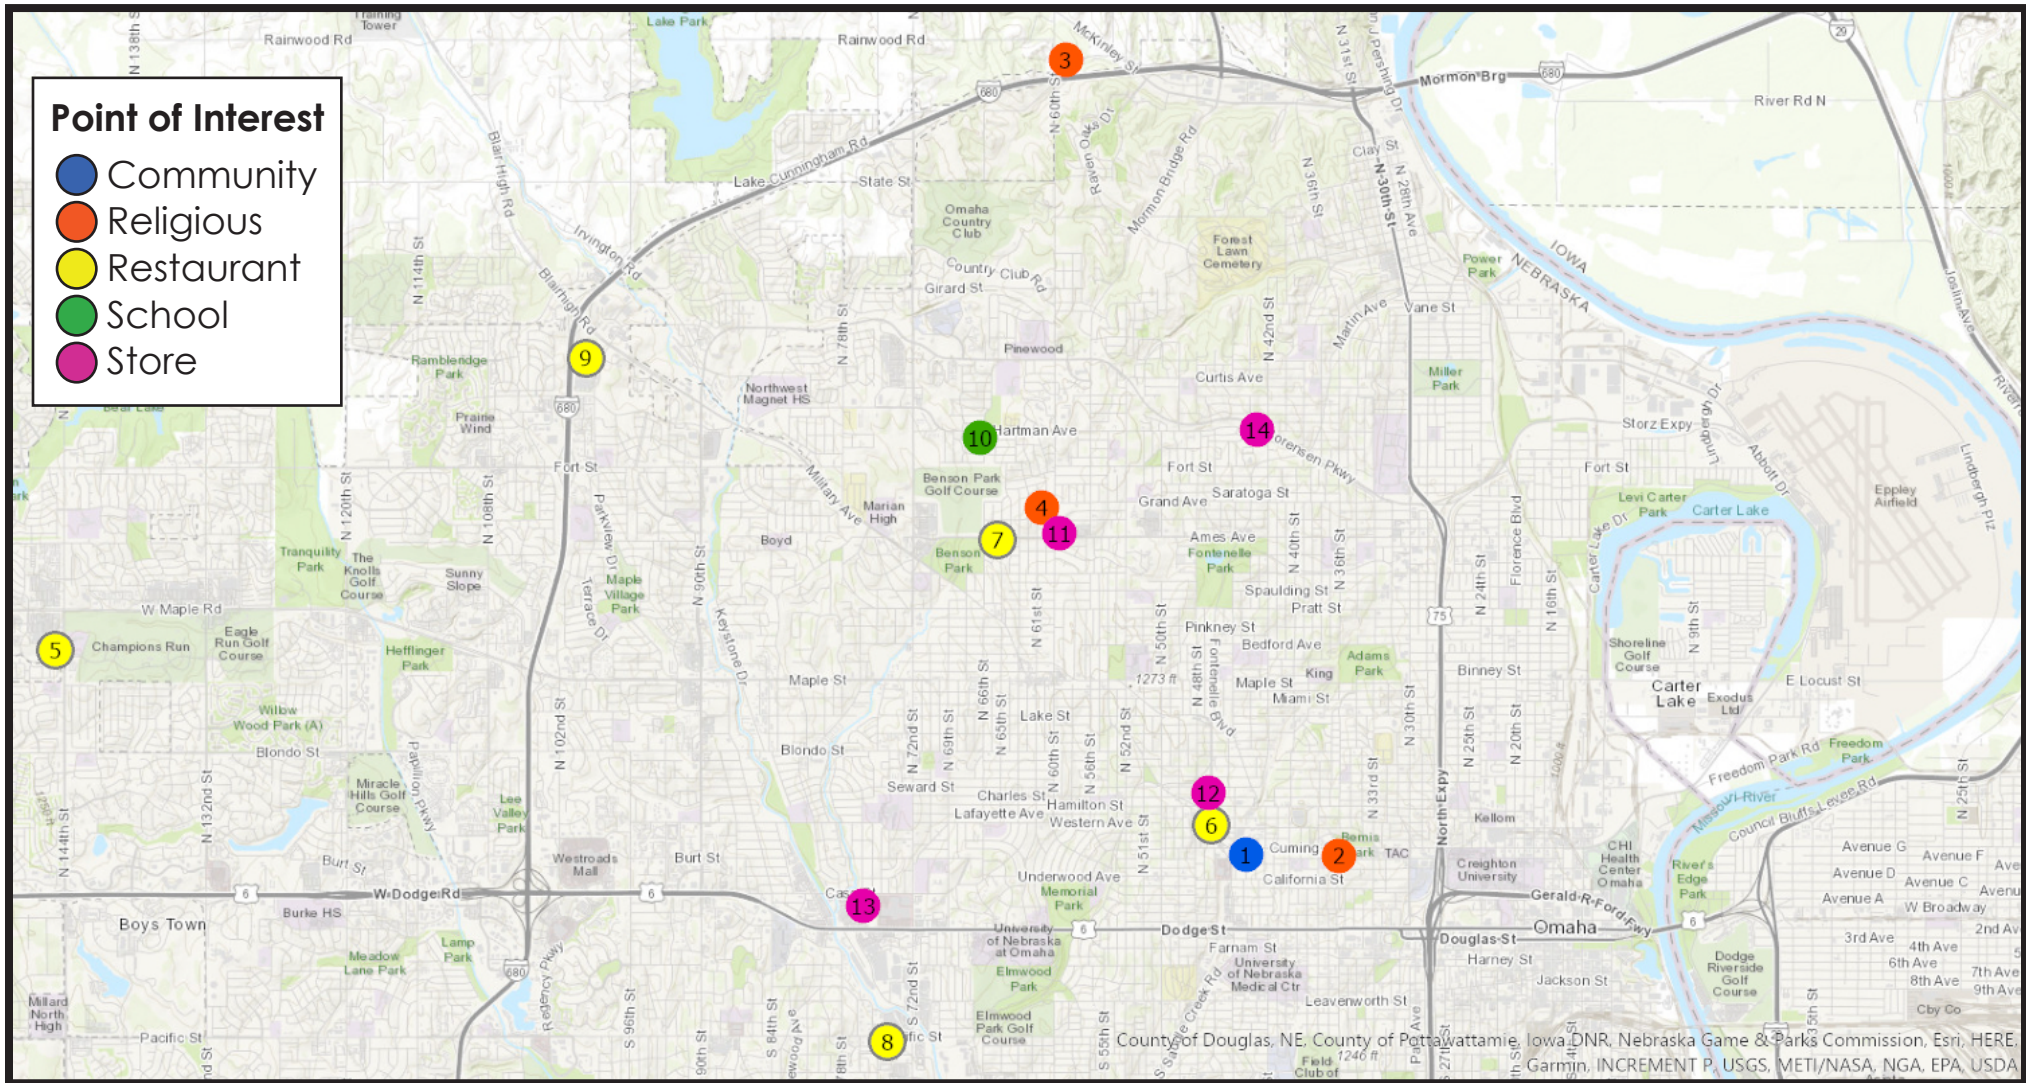

A grocery store with large varieties of groceries from various parts of the world, including South Asia.

14. Lermu Asian Groceries
4236 Redman Ave

A grocery store commonly frequented by members of the Karen community.

WELCOME TO OMAHA - KAREN IMMIGRANTS

Welcome to Omaha! This map shows a few points of interest for our Karen community here in Omaha. For more information, please look on the back for more information about each point.