

Questions & Answers for RFSP Q002-25*Q&A Due July 16, 2025*RFP Due August 5, 2025

- Q1. Is the district seeking vendors to provide literacy curriculum materials for teacher and student use at this time?
- A1. No.
- Q2. Will responses for literacy professional development be accepted or is the district only seeking materials?
- A2. Responses for literacy professional development will be reviewed in accordance with the RFSQ requirements. The district is not seeking literacy curriculum materials.
- Q3. Does a potential bidder need to be a University?
- A3. No.
- Q4. Can you confirm that a firm must respond to all aspects of the project requirements outlined in section 2.1? Or may a firm respond to only select project requirements or general requirements for which they are qualified?
- A4. A firm may respond to only select project requirements or general requirements in their statement of qualifications.
- Q5. Is the school district interested in submissions that include partnerships between multiple firms and/or universities or is the preference for firms and universities to submit independently based on their individual qualifications?
- A5. Submissions that include partnerships between multiple firms and/or universities will be reviewed.
- Q6. Does the school district anticipate that this work would occur in person or would a hybrid or virtual approach be acceptable?
- A6. Submissions that include in person, hybrid or virtual approaches will be reviewed.
- Q7. For 2.1.2, is the district looking for firms to support lab schools and pilot programs in the activities listed or for universities to establish lab schools and pilot programs where the listed activities would occur?
- A7. The District is seeking firms with proven expertise in supporting lab schools and pilot programs, including all of the activities listed.
- Q8. For 2.1.3, are all teacher and leader development programs to be university led? Also, do all PLCs need to connect university faculty with district educators? Or could both of these be led by qualified educational service providers?
- A8. These could be led in partnership with the school district and/or qualified educational service providers.